

Keep the output gain pot all the way up (or close to it) and adjust your levels with the input sensitivity switch.